

Grape escapes: 10 of the best vineyard holidays

Tamara Hinson

Summer's just around the corner, so why not raise a toast to our favourite time of year by spending a weekend (or longer) at one of these fabulous vineyard hotels? Cheers!

7. Viña Vik, Millahue, Chile

The owners of this Chilean vineyard hotel were determined to forge their own path, and that's exactly what they've done.

To start with, there's the architecture—the hotel is topped with a gleaming titanium swirl which juts out from the hillside, providing the perfect vantage point from which to admire the vineyards below.

The rooms are minimalist but marvellous. opt for the Vik Suite and you'll get to soak in a hammock-style bath (sounds odd but it works) next to floor-to-ceiling windows, or the H master suite for its table made from an Hermès saddle.

We also love the complimentary mini-bars in each room although whether your liver will be quite as grateful remains to be seen.
